Hosting Guidelines

Tournament hosting is available to both members and non-members of USSSA. Each organization wishing to host a tournament through USSSA must abide by the guidelines in this document and, policies and bylaws of U.S. Soccer Federation.

The hosting organization is responsible for ensuring that each participant within their tournament is a registered through a member of U.S. Soccer. Any player, coach or team not currently registered with a member will be required to register with USSSA.

To have your tournament sanctioned with USSSA the following requirements have been set:

Submit hosting form, insurance request form and payment (all must be received together). Once received by our office, your copy of the approved hosting form will be returned. The approved hosting form MUST per U.S. Soccer policies, must be posted on the tournament website.

Make the sanction process easy for you and your event; NO TEAM FEES, NO POST TOURNAMENT REPORT, ONE TOURNAMENT – ONE FEE. Sanctioning fees will be returned with full refund if tournament is canceled within seven (7) days prior to event start date.

Tournaments will be able to establish their own set of rules for tournament play, as long as they abide with laws set out by U.S. Soccer and F.I.F.A. Tournament rules must be submitted or referenced in the tournament sanctioning process.

USSSA teams will receive all insurance benefits associated with membership during tournament events. If any team(s) are refused insurance benefits by their member group, then they may purchase it from USSSA for the duration of the tournament. For more information on this program contact USSSA: soccerinfo@usssa.com.

The forms below must be submitted together to receive approval. If all forms are not submitted together, then your tournament will be denied. Forms can be e-mailed to the contacts listed.
